

Deep Conversation Topics

for March

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
1 Subtly beautiful moments from this winter.	2 A fictional character that inspired you growing up.	3 The most awe-inspiring wildlife you've seen in its natural habitat.	4 Whether you find it easy to say what you really mean or not, and why.	5 What you feel when you look up at the sky.	6 A profession you have the utmost admiration for, and why.	7 A heartfelt story about a coworker who had your back.
8 A woman who has influenced you, and why.	9 If there was no nighttime, what a day of never-ending light could be like for you.	10 If you could have an extra hour every day, how you'd use it.	11 The most courageous thing you've seen someone do.	12 A club or community from childhood you're grateful that you were a part of.	13 Something you failed at and you're so happy for doing so.	14 If someone asked you to 'write your story', what you'd write about.
15 Something that's meaningless to others but makes your life so much better.	16 A moment you can recount so vividly it feels like yesterday.	17 A memorable St. Patrick's Day memory or celebration.	18 Something in your life that unexpectedly worked out.	19 Something in life you'll never fully understand and it's totally okay.	20 How you'll make this spring season different from others.	21 The most beautiful forest you've seen and/or explored, and why.
22 The most breathtaking body of water you've visited.	23 If you were given several acres of land, what you'd do with it.	24 What about your town or local area you wish you could preserve forever.	25 Who you believe is a hero, and why.	26 Something unfinished in your life you want to revisit.	27 A secret of nature you'd love to see with your own eyes.	28 The most beautiful flowers in bloom you've ever seen and how it made you feel.
29 The most adventurous place you'd love to spend one night of your life, & why.	30 A childhood story that taught you an important life lesson.	31 A time your choice of words made a difference.	1	2	3	4
						 Ordinary & Happy