30	1 Start a donation box to add to this month & add one item to it today.	2 Set a 15-min timer and find items that are out in the open to donate.	3 Pretend guests are coming over and reset the entryway, putting away what you don't need.	4 Remove everything from the floors that's not furniture or meant to be there.	5 De-clutter the living room area where you relax in the eve-nings (e.g., your couch and TV area, read-ing nook).	6 Pick the visible area that's been both-ering you the most, set a 20-min timer, and declutter what you can.
7 Clear the kitchen countertop and only return what you use daily.	8 Clear the bath-room countertop and only keep what you abso-lutely need.	9 Remove everything off the fridge door and only return what you want to keep.	10 Clear the night-stands, wipe them, and only keep the essentials.	11 Remove everything from the top of the dresser and only return 2-3 essen-tial items.	12 Set a 20-min timer and clear as many flat surfaces as you can (e.g., coffee table).	13 Pick the most cluttered corner of a room and take 15 min to declutter & tidy.
14 Pick a color and declutter items in the open in that color.	15 Pick a number between 1 and 6 and find that many items to donate.	16 Pick a letter and declutter items in the open that start with that letter.	17 Pick a room, set a 15-min timer, and declutter only during that time.	18 At whatever time you declutter, spend that many minutes to declutter (e.g., 5 min at 5 pm).	19 Find 3 items to toss, 3 items to donate, and 3 items to relocate.	20 Find a spot that would make for a great before-and-after photo and declutter it.
21 In the kitchen, clear the window sill and the top of the fridge.	22 In the living room, remove excess knick-knacks and throw pillows.	23 In the bedroom, make the bed, put away the laundry, and declut-ter excess decor items.	24 In the bathroom, declutter the toiletries, combining duplicates.	25 In the entryway, remove everything not in season or not used near-daily.	26 In the home office, declutter cables, chargers, and electronics.	27 In the dining room, clear the dining table.
28 Declutter wall shelves for 20 minutes.	29 Declutter wall art and decorations for 20 minutes.	30 Drop off any donations.	1	2	3	4
