

A Week of Decluttering

for End of June & Start of July

Ordinary & Happy
0 & 77

S U N	2 8	Declutter wall shelves for 20 minutes. Set a timer for 20 minutes and look for things you don't want to display on your wall shelves anymore. Donate or store them away. If you have time left, try to group similar items together, dust the shelves, and wipe down the items on the shelves.	☐
M O N	2 9	Declutter wall art and decorations for 20 minutes. Set a timer for 20 minutes. Walk through the house and consider whether there's any wall art or decorations that could be donated, stored, or relocated.	☐
T U E	3 0	Drop off any donations. On the last day of June, gather all your donation boxes/bags you set up at the start of the month and drop off the items at your preferred donation center.	☐
W E D	1	Clean and organize any grilling tools for the 4th of July & grilling season. To prepare for the 4th of July and/or cookout season, declutter and organize your grilling tools. Toss/recycle ones that are broken. Organize your remaining grilling supplies and clean them.	☐
T H U	2	Do 30 minutes of tidying the backyard/balcony and/or grill area. Set a timer for 30 minutes and organize & tidy your grill area, backyard, or balcony. If you don't have any outdoor spaces, you could focus on the kitchen instead.	☐
F R I	3	Do 30 minutes of tidying the living room and guest bathroom. Particularly if you're hosting for the 4th of July, declutter and tidy the living room and guest bathroom. Focus on things that make a big impact, such as clearing clutter from visible surfaces and cleaning surfaces.	☐
S A T	4	Do 30 minutes of tidying after guests leave (if hosting). If you didn't have any guests, simply reset the house for 30 minutes, focusing on the things that bother you most.	☐