

Last-Minute Ideas

for Father's Day

SIMPLE

- Send him a playlist.
- Send him a collection of jokes and memes.
- Send him a slideshow of photos and videos.
- Send a digital gift card.
- Send him a photo of you holding a handmade message.
- Send him a Zoom invite for an online get-together later in the week.
- Record a short podcast-style interview of you talking to the camera telling him why he's awesome.

THOUGHTFUL

- Send him a heartfelt voice message.
- Call him and have some conversation prompts ready to have a fun conversation where you reminisce.
- Post a photo carousel online and tag him in it.
- Record a video message of why you love him and send it to him.
- Make a photo collage using an app and send it to him.
- Write a 'why I appreciate you' list, design it in Canva, and send it to him.

MORE IDEAS

- If geographically possible, surprise him with a visit.
- Get event tickets for you to go together at a later date.
- Book a table for lunch or dinner at a later date.
- Plan a family or 'you and dad' road trip for a later date and send him the route on a maps app.
- Send him a 'Father's Day gift option' list with options like 'dinner', 'scenic walk', 'trivia night' and other activities that he can choose from and you plan later.
