Home Decor

1	The framed painting you don't like anymore.	2	The decorative vase that's been empty for over a year.	3	The candle holders you never use.
4	The decorative bowl that collects dust.	5	The holiday decorations you haven't put up in years.	6	The item you dislike and only keep because it was a gift.
7	The throw pillows that spend more time on the floor than the couch.	8	The decorations you bought on clearance but never used.	9	The coffee table books no one opens.
10	The bowl that's become a catch-all for random stuff.	11	The framed quote or sign that doesn't resonate with you anymore.	12	Anything that you dislike and makes your place look cluttered.
